Lost at the Boothman Spring cookout: A silver fold-up table that is in a black bag with yellow "Cabelas" on the outside. It may look like a folding chair only slightly larger. Call Bill Arnold, 466-2438.

Judy Hudson's terrific book about the RMC, Peaks and Paths, is available from the Hudsons (abhudson@anthro.umass.edu or 466-5509) and on the RMC website. It is expected also to be for sale at Lowe's, AMC Pinkham and Highland Center, White Mountain Cafe & bookstore, Village Book Store in Littleton, and White Birches in Conway. The RMC is getting the profits from the sale of the book. Best way to benefit the RMC is to purchase it from the Hudsons or the website because other sites have it at 40 percent off, says Judy.

RMC Art Exhibit: Most of the framed RMC photos and sketches in the town hall exhibit are available for purchase, to be picked up at the end of the show. Prices are reasonable! If you'd like to purchase one or order an unframed copy, put your reservation into the notebook next to the exhibit or call Al Hudson at 466-5509.
